Thursday, October 17, 2013

6:00-9:00 pm - Wild Rice Market Bistro

Always marvelled at the perfection of potstickers? Have you been sweet on spring rolls, or smitten by steamed buns?

Now's your chance to uncover the history and mystery of Dim Sum during a special evening at Wild Rice Market Bistro at River Market.

The evening will begin with Dim Sum 101, explained by Chef Todd Bright, followed by a quick lesson on wine pairing from Frank Gregus of Pacific Breeze Winery. Then it's time to enjoy mixing and matching, pairing and profiling the clever Dim Sum delights of Wild Rice, with well-chosen wines from Pacific Breeze Winery.

Just $60 includes two wine pairings, taxes and gratuity.

Additional wine can be purchased.

Purchase tickets by emailing Lisa at lisa@wildricebc.ca or call 778.397.0028.

Partial proceeds from this very special evening will benefit the Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation.
