Welcome to Royal Columbian Hospital (RCH)

RCH is one of 12 hospitals under the umbrella of Fraser Health. It is a regional referral hospital providing specialized surgical and medical programs to 1.5 million people from Burnaby to Boston Bar, as well as a UBC-affiliated teaching hospital. RCH is also a community hospital serving the residents of New Westminister.

RCH is located at 330 East Columbia Street, New Wesminster. From highway one, take the Brunette Avenue exit. If coming by Skytrain, exit at Sapperton Station. The station entry/exit ramp is located directly across the street from the RCH parkade.

RCH is also on the major bus routes.
